About Producer	Lees of Scotland, established in 1931, is a manufacturer of branded confectionery and meringues. The business is based in Coatbridge just outside Glasgow, where it's modern 80,000 square foot factory is located. The original products manufactured by Lees were the Lees macaroon bar and the Lees snowball. Over the years, products have been added to the portfolio which now includes a range of confectionery bars, traditional jam teacakes, mint and jaffa teacakes and a range of meringues.
